9. You own the copyright to your entry as its' author. If another person has filmed your entry, you warrant that you have received an assignment of all associated copyright to that entry from that person. IAPI may ask to see evidence of that assignment at any time.
10. Your entry must be your own work, must not be copied, must not contain any third-party materials and/or content that you do not have permission to use and must not otherwise be obscene, defamatory or in breach of any applicable legislation or regulations. If we have reason to believe your entry is not your own work or otherwise breaches this paragraph 9, then it may not be considered.
11. By submitting an entry to the competition, you give the Promoter and the Charity:
 - a) Permission for your winning entry to be published on the IAPI website and grant the Promoter and the Charity a non-exclusive, royalty-free, worldwide right and licence to use, reproduce, display and publish your competition entry in all available digital formats, whether now known or hereafter invented, (including on the Promoter's and/or the Charity's website) and hard copy (including in the Promoter's and/or the Charity's publications), for purposes connected with the Competition and the Charity's upcoming marketing campaigns and to adapt the entry to enable such use, reproduction, display and/or publication (including to shorten or edit it for such purposes), and you hereby irrevocably waive, for the benefit of the Promoter and the Charity, all moral rights in the entry to which you are entitled.
 - b) The right to use your name, photograph and city of residence for the sole purpose of identifying you as the author of your entry and/or as a finalist or winner of the competition.
12. By entering the competition, entrants confirm and agree that they are available (should they be selected) to take part in the Global Young Lions Competition taking place online between 16th May 2022 and 7th June 2022. Travel to the Cannes Lions International Festival of Creativity, which takes place between 20-24 June 2020 (the "Festival") will be the prize (subject to travel restrictions and unforeseen COVID-19 related occurrences.) Entrants must have at least six months left on a valid passport with no restrictions on flying to France. Entrants must be free to travel to Cannes from 20 June 2022 for up to 6 nights. If any permission is required from your employer to attend the Festival, it should be obtained prior to submitting an entry for the Competition.

ENTRY COSTS

13. The cost of entry is €90 per team for all categories.

PICKING THE WINNERS

14. A panel of judges will review all entries, create a shortlist for each category and select one winning team per category. Details of the judges can be found on the IAPI website.
15. Shortlisted Young Lions in Media, Film, PR, Digital, Design and Young Marketers teams will be asked to undertake a five-minute presentation in person to the judges, followed by a 5-minute Q&A. This will take place in March 2022. All shortlisted entrants will be notified of time and date by email.
16. The Print category is judged remotely with no in-person presentations, similar to the international Young Lions Competition in Cannes.
17. Judging criteria is available on the IAPI site
18. The judges' decision is final and no correspondence will be entered into regarding their decision.

THE PRIZE

19. The prize is the chance to represent Ireland at the Global Young Lions Competition online.
20. Winners will also receive a complimentary Young Lions full week registration to the Festival which includes:
 - Access to the full learning programme during the Festival week (20-24 June 2022);
 - View all PR, Promo and Activation, Direct, Outdoor, Media, Digital, Design, Press, Film, Film Craft, Branded Content & Entertainment, Mobile, Creative Effectiveness and Titanium and Integrated Lions entries on interactive kiosks, and the shortlists in exhibitions;
 - Listen to all Radio Lions entries;
 - View the Film Lions, Film Craft and Titanium and Integrated Lions shortlist screenings;
 - Attendance at all four award ceremonies;
 - Full access to the Young Lions Zone and all the masterclasses held there;
21. Winners will also receive return flights to Nice and accommodation in Cannes, as booked by IAPI. Winners will need to arrange their own transportation to and from the airport in Dublin. We will endeavour to make a group booking from Nice airport to Cannes. Winners should ensure that they obtain any required visas, travel insurance, permissions and comply with conditions of travel. The prize does not include any spending money so travellers will need to ensure that they take appropriate funds with them.

22. Winners will be notified by IAPI by either email or phone. Due to the time critical nature of the prize, if any winner does not respond to IAPI within 5 days of being notified by IAPI, then the winner's prize will be forfeited and IAPI shall be entitled to select another winning team (and both members of that winning team will have to respond to the phone call or email from IAPI within 5 days or else they will also forfeit their prize). If any winner rejects their prize, then the winner's prize will be forfeited and IAPI shall be entitled to select another winning team.
23. The prize cannot be exchanged or transferred by you and cannot be redeemed by you for any other prize. No cash alternative is available. You must pay all other costs associated with the prize and not specifically included in the prize.
24. By submitting your entry to the Competition you submit that you have read, understood and agree to all the Competition rules and regulations.
25. We take no responsibility for entries that are lost, delayed, misdirected or incomplete or cannot be delivered or entered for any technical or other reason. Proof of delivery of the entry is not proof of receipt.
26. The winners may be required for promotional activity and shall participate in such activity on the Promoters' and/or the Charity's reasonable request. Each member of each winning team consents to the use by the Promoter and/or the Charity and their related companies, both before and after the closing date of the Competition for an unlimited time, of their voice, image, photograph and name for publicity purposes (in any medium, including still photographs and films, and on the internet, including any websites hosted by the Promoter and/or the Charity and their related companies) and in advertising, marketing or promotional material without additional compensation or prior notice and in entering the Competition, all entrants consent to the same.
27. If anyone under the age of 16 appears in your Competition entry you will need to highlight this when asked on the entry form and provide contact details. We will then get in touch with you to ask for signed, written consent (which may include email) from the relevant parent or guardian for each person under the age of 16 who appears in your Competition entry. This is required for us to publish your entry. If written consent is not provided we will not be able to publish the entry or to award it a prize.
28. By submitting your entry to the Competition you represent that the content you submit:
 - a) is not and does not contain any material that is obscene, threatening, harassing, libellous, deceptive, fraudulent, invasive of another's privacy, offensive, defamatory of any person or otherwise illegal;
 - b) does not infringe any patent, trademark, trade secret, copyright, or other intellectual or proprietary or privacy right of any party or individual; and
 - c) will not contain software viruses or any other computer code, files, or programs designed to interrupt, destroy, or limit the functionality of the IAPI site or any computer software or hardware or telecommunications equipment.
30. The Promoter shall use and take care of any personal information you supply in accordance with data protection legislation. By entering the competition, you agree to the collection, retention, usage and distribution of your personal information in order to process and contact you about your Competition entry.

31. The Promoter may pass entrants' details to third parties and/or otherwise engage third party providers in connection with this Competition where the third party is acting on the Promoter's behalf for the purposes of administering this Competition and/or any subsequent publicity, and/or for the purposes of sending you the Promoters' marketing materials; and/or as otherwise required by law.
32. The Promoter of the Competition is the Institute of Advertising Practitioners in Ireland (IAPI) whose address is 12 Clanwilliam Square, Grand Canal Quay, Dublin 2. Any complaints regarding the Competition should be sent to: info@iapi.com
33. Nothing in these Terms and Conditions shall exclude the liability of IAPI for death, personal injury, fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation as a result of their negligence.
34. The Promoter accepts no responsibility for any damage, loss, liabilities, injury or disappointment incurred or suffered by you as a result of entering the Competition or accepting any prize. The Promoter further disclaims all liability for any injury or damage to you or any other person's computer relating to or resulting from participation in or downloading any materials in connection with the Competition.
35. The Promoter reserves the right at any time and from time to time to modify or discontinue, temporarily or permanently, this Competition with or without prior notice due to reasons outside their control (including, without limitation, in the case of anticipated, suspected or actual fraud). The decision of the Promoter in all matters under its control is final and binding.
